And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

The country is saved! Can you think of anything that could take our minds off of all our world's problems like this new fad of streaking? Not only has it given college students something to do in the place of political activism, it has supplied the older generations with plenty of coffee break conversation.

Streaking has also given column writers a good subject to fill space with.

Troy Martin in The Canyon News offers the following recipe for streaking, as an old fogey sees it, "Call a crowd, and notify the television stations. It's no fun streaking unnoticed.

"Then strip to the skin and run a bat out of — from one dormitory to another. University officials will make noises but they probably won't bother you since most of the administrators are relieved that you are not taking over a public park or occupying the administration building.

"The girls have joined in only sparsely. I heard of two girls who streaked at an eastern university and they were so ugly they set streaking back a good year.

"Don't expect any mass arrests.

"Students have to do something when spring comes and the sap rises. In recent years they sat up all night trying to think up new ways to defy the establishment.

"If the truth were known and the innermost feeling of college presidents were made public I'll wager their thoughts overwhelmingly would be, 'Isn't streaking wonderful.'"

Noticed in the Vernon paper that there is a possibility of a new industry developing out of this latest craze. Of course we might have to hurry to beat Vernon to the punch but the proposed industry would market racing stripes for the "streakers" who are presently multiplying on the campuses of the universities and colleges across the country.

Some one in Vernon also suggests that streakers shouldn't be arrested while they are really streaking. He says they are guilty of indecent exposure only when they stop.

Our son, Darrell, was home this weekend and I asked him why I had heard very little about streaking at Austin. Most of the streaking in Texas has been confined to the smaller colleges and universities.

He said that for one thing Austin has very few dorms on the campus and also that the campus has just been covered with cops. He said that while the cops couldn't catch the streakers, they were using cameras to get pictures and picking them up later. He said that for the most part the streakers just have not been able to beat the system down there.

Barbara and I attended the West Texas Press Association meeting in Fort Stockton this past weekend and one thing that keeps me amazed is the spread in the price of gasoline.

For the most part the price of gasoline in Fort Stockton is about the same as here, while it was about three cents higher when I was out there about two months ago. But in Big Spring it was about five cents higher than it is in Hamlin or Fort Stockton.

While the federal government urges citizens to report gasoline price violations, who knows what is a violation and what is not. Locally this is not much of a problem because you can keep better track of the increases but how is a person traveling across the country supposed to know what the price is supposed to be?

Fortunately, I did not have to buy

PANCAKE SUPPER FRIDAY—The Hamlin Lions Club members are getting ready for their annual Pancake Supper and Cake and Pie Sale set for Friday night in the high school cafeteria. This picture taken last year at the supper shows three of the club members at the grill cooking just a few of the hundreds of pancakes served. Shown are Ellis West, Jerry Smith and Bobby Crowley, from left.

VARSITY TO BROWNWOOD—

Piper Tracksters Take Two Meets Saturday

The Hamlin High track teams took top honors in two meets Saturday. The varsity team took 10 first places to swept their division in the Mustang Relays at Andrews while the junior varsity team was taking first place in the Anson Junior Varsity Relays.

Competing in Andrews, the local tracksters won both relays, both hurdles, the 100, 220, and the 440, and in the field events took the high jump, the shot, the discus and the pole vault.

Johnny Jones set one new record at Andrews and tied another. He was clocked with a 9.6 in the 100 in the prelims for a new record and ran a 22.2 in the 220 to tie the record in that event.

Bill Cork was high individual with 30 points, winning the 440 and the high jump and running on both winning relay teams.

The Hamlin JV's rolled up 138 points at Anson to take first place with Haskell taking second with 78 points.

Area Receives Inquiry For 400 Male Workers

An inquiry has been made, according to Peggy Bonds, executive secretary of the Hamlin Board of Community Development, studying the feasibility of locating a major industry in this area that could employ as many as 400 men.

Mrs. Bonds said she was notified last week that an unnamed manufacturing concern was interested in locating in this area.

The Brazos West Economic Development Corporation is conducting the survey following an inquiry by Frank Martino, president of Russell-Newman Manufacturing Co. in Denton, who said another manufacturer had inquired of the business climate of this area.

Russell-Newman operates a plant in Stamford.

Operating through the area chambers, the Brazos West Corp. is conducting a labor survey to establish the potential labor force available for an industry interested in this area.

The nature of the industry is unknown and the location is not determined, except that the interest is in the Jones-Haskell-Stonewall-Knox County area.

The 35th Annual Meeting of the members of Stamford Electric Cooperative, Inc. will be held at the Stamford High School Auditorium on Saturday, March 16, 1974, according to Charles W. Stenholm, general manager.

City Receives Sewer Grant

The City of Hamlin received word this week from Congressman Omar Burleson that a $2,250 Environmental Protection Administration grant has been approved for the City of Hamlin.

The grant, the first of three steps, is for the preparation of facilities plans and studies for a wastewater treatment works construction plant. The total cost of this stage of the project will be $3,000 and the Federal portion represents 75 percent of the eligible costs.

Mayor Joe Ford said Tuesday that the second step in the city's efforts to meet the state and federal requirements for the wastewater treatment project would be a federal grant for the preparation of the engineering and plans for the project. The third step would be a grant for the actual construction of the project.

IT RAINS!

After many months of dry weather, Hamlin received .84 inch of rain Sunday.

Cloudy conditions prevailed Wednesday and rain was predicted in the area for Thursday.

Mothers of all girls interested in the Little League baseball program are urged to attend a meeting Monday evening at 7:30 in the David Wade home at 251 N. W. Ave.

FROM THE FILES . . .

FIFTY YEARS AGO
(March 7, 1924)

It is a pretty good record in one month, the shortest of the year, for 65 hens to produce 1314 eggs. That is what the famous White Leghorns of Fred Moore did in February. Fred says that is no better than it should be, but yet when seven out of 10 lay every day, that is very fine. Fred has a small space in the back yard and regardless of the time of year, Moore's hens produce the eggs.

There seems to be a big opening in Hamlin for some one to put in a laundry of some description. Why send all this money to our neighboring cities.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(March 12, 1954)

Water meter connections reported by the Hamlin city office this week gives further indication that the population of the city is probably at an all-time record. Telephone and electric connections also attest to the definite growth in recent months of the city's population. In fact, numbers of people have estimated that there are now 4,000 people in Hamlin. Official census figures in 1950 placed the population at 3,569.

Hamlin area cotton farmers were smiling a little broader this week following the declaration in Washington that cotton will be supported at a national average of not less than 31.25 cents per pound this year. Last year's average was 30.80 cents. Both averages were support prices of 90 per cent of parity, the minimum support level permitted by law.

A nice revenue was realized by members of the Good Neighbor Home Demonstration Club from the chili supper that was staged Friday evening by the group at the Hamlin High School cafeteria.

Three new completions, one of which is for dual production, one testing for pay and two projected wells spotlight the oil development in the Hamlin region during the past few days.

TEN YEARS AGO
(March 12, 1964)

The Piperettes fell by the wayside Friday in the first round of the Region I Conference AA tournament held in Lubbock, when they lost to the Granbury Pirates, 67-42. The Piperettes trailed in all four quarters of the game with the Pirates making big gains in both the second and fourth quarters. The Piperettes finished the basketball season Friday with a 24-9 record, 13-6 in pre-district and 10-0 in district play. They averaged 44 points per game.

gas in Big Spring but how is one to know whether the price in Big Spring is really supposed to be five cents higher than it is in Fort Stockton or Hamlin?

You boat and recreation vehicle owners can take heart in the fact that while gasoline will be a big problem for you this summer the government has not forgotten you.

According to a news story in The Christian Science Monitor the leisure industry — resort hotels, motels, restaurants, boating and skiing facilities, and a hundred other things — is a major industry, deserving of its proper slice of the energy pie.

But what is the proper slice? The Federal Energy Office intends to find out.

Boat users, according to the story, can look forward to 85 percent of the fuel they consumed in the base period of 1972—a sharp cutback from current demand, but no worse, relatively, than motorists now experience with their cars.

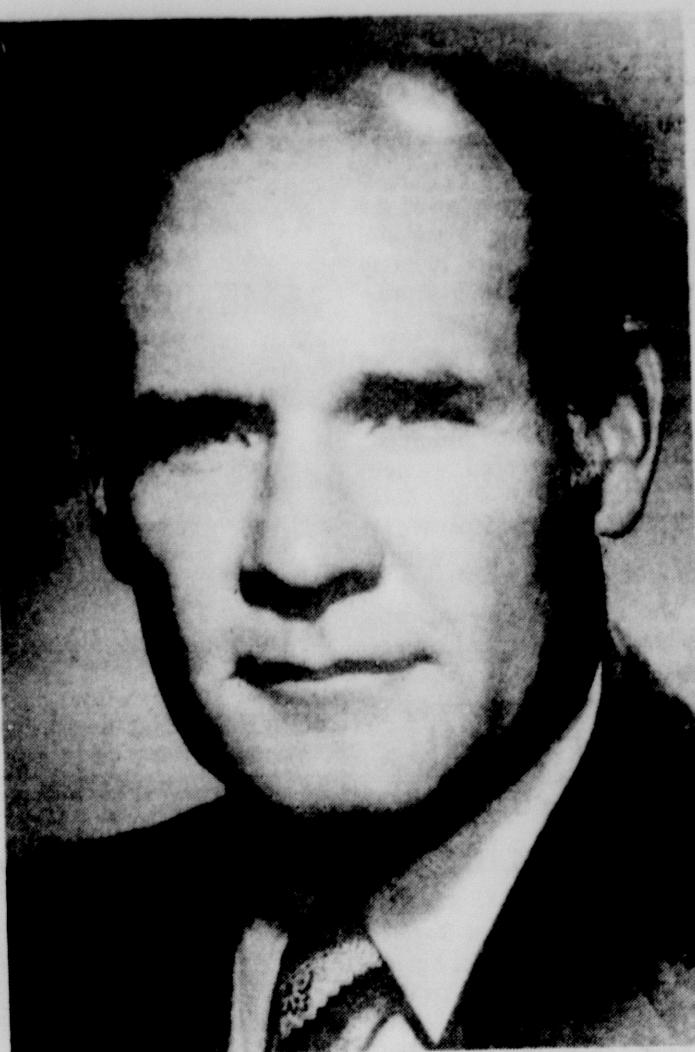

Boaters who have trouble at gas stations, the story says, should complain to their regional FEO office. Station owners can not legally discriminate between boat and car.

Gasoline consumed by a pleasure boat is clearly recreational. But so is gasoline used to transport families to bowling, the movies or a football game.

and gave up an average of 32 points. The girls averaged 52 points per game in district play and held their opponents to 39 points.

Twenty Jones County adult leaders received diplomas here Monday night for satisfactorily completing the 18 hour course in "Medical Self-Help and First Aid." The Medical Self-Help course was designed to train leaders over Jones County in the latest principles of First Aid and other emergencies which might arise following a national tragedy.

An agreement was reached Monday between the Jones County Commissioners Court and the Anson Independent School District whereby the school district can use property valuations as determined by a county-financed survey. The district has agreed to pay $4,000 for valuations as determined in the district and will pay an additional $250 for this information placed on survey cards.

TEXAS CRUSADE CHAIRMAN—Tom Landry, coach of the Dallas Cowboys, has accepted chairmanship of the American Cancer Society's 1974 Crusade for Texas. Coach Landry led the 1973 Cancer Crusade to a record $3,616,584. This year's goal has been set at $4,000,000. Mrs. Robert Fowler, chairman of the Hamlin crusade, said the goal for Jones County was $5,798.16. April has been designated as Cancer Control Month.

DPS to Tighten Up On Speed Limit Enforcement

AUSTIN—Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said today he is disturbed by many complaints by Texas motorists about drivers refusing to obey the 55-mile-per-hour speed limit, and has directed DPS troopers to intensify their enforcement efforts.

"When the new law went into effect January 20 of this year," he said, "our surveys indicated a high degree of voluntary compliance on the part of Texas drivers."

"But since that time, we have noticed that motorists, or at least many of them, have been gradually 'inchin' up their speeds on Texas highways. Consequently, our troopers have been increasing their volume of speeding citations, and will have to continue to intensify their efforts until a more reasonable degree of voluntary compliance is achieved."

Speir said he has received numerous reports by motorists who are complying with the new law who are frightened and angered by others who pass them at speeds dangerously above the legal limit, and still others who "tailgate" them when they can't pass for one reason or another.

"We commend those drivers who are cooperating in the state and national effort to reduce accidents, save lives, and at the same time conserve fuel by driving within the legal limits," Speir said.

"And we solicit the cooperation of those who would forget or ignore the dangers posed to themselves and others by dangerous and illegal speeds on the highways of our state."

"We would remind everyone that consistently through the years, excessive speed is involved in more fatal accidents than any other single factor."

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route One gets about half-way serious this week.

Dear editor:

I was looking through a copy of a news magazine the other day and ran across an article on the plight of a young couple in these inflationary times.

They got married in 1968, and shortly thereafter when the man's salary reached $16,000 a year they bought by the small down-payment route a 4-bedroom house, an air-conditioned Pontiac LeMans, and an expensive pedigree dog. Probably paid cash for the dog, but I'm not sure, the article didn't say. They went bowling five nights a week and on weekends went to movies and dined out at a famous lobster place.

Lately though due to cutbacks in production the man's salary has dropped to $14,000 a year and that coupled with inflation has just about ruined them. They've sold the big house and moved to a smaller one, sold the big car and bought a used Volkswagen, and they gave the dog away. The man blames the government for his plight, adding "I've lost faith in everything the government says."

Understand, I'm in favor of blaming the government for everything you can, but I was just thinking, times have changed. It used to be that a young couple started out with a small house and worked up to a big one, but nowadays they start out with a big one and frequently work down to a small one. Their economic philosophy seems to be: bowl

I was very happy to call the newspaper Sunday night to report the .7 in. of rain we got. We are greedy but we do need more. However, we are very grateful for what we got.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Justiss are the proud parents of a boy weighing something over 7 lbs. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Douglass of our city. Seems that Thurman has decided that Jean can claim him, as he still claims the girl. But I bet that he would yell if some one took the boy.

Mr. Buster Lambert is seeing a doctor in Monahans this morning. Hope he will be able to help him.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards of West Columbia, Tx., visited in the R. M. Babb home all last week. They also visited his mother, Mrs. Myrtie Edwards, in Rotan.

If you missed the wrestling matches and the donkey basketball games in McCaulley last week then you missed a lot of fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Buster Turner and daughters from Brownfield spent the weekend with his mother, Glena Turner. They attended the Gun show in Sweetwater.

Mrs. Martha Williams of Odessa has bought the Ed Smith house and will be moving as soon as she retires. We welcome her to our town.

Creston Whitten of Odessa visited his aunt, May Hurst, on Sunday afternoon.

Thanks very much to those that hand me their subscriptions to send in. If you would like to subscribe to the paper, I will be glad to do that for you.

Ruth Brown and Merrena Babb attended the Postal Meeting in Abilene Saturday

Welfare Department Now Offering Alternate to Nursing Home Care

Alternatives to nursing home or institutional care are being offered by the State Department of Public Welfare to Texas' needy aged, blind and disabled.

The new "adult social services" are designed to help those who don't require full-time nursing care to continue living at home. State Welfare Commissioner Raymond W. Vowell said.

The new programs are intended for elderly people, and the blind and disabled, who receive a monthly assistance check from the federal government's Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program.

"With a little help, many elderly people who otherwise would have to enter nursing homes can live at home or in their own communities," Vowell said. "All they need is someone to help them do things they can no longer do for themselves, like cooking meals and taking care of the house."

To be offered on a statewide basis as community resources become available, the new programs include Homemaker, Chore Foster Care, Day Care and other services to adults.

Homemaker services provide someone to perform such personal care as bathing, exercising and giving medication, as well as preparing meals and doing light housework. The service will be provided for a few hours a day or on a 24-hour basis for a temporary period until the person is able to do for himself.

A similar program is Chore services, which is less personal, and provides a home service aide who can help with such things as cooking, cleaning, doing the laundry, shopping for groceries, minor repairs and yard work.

Day Care, a familiar service for children, will become available for adults as well, either in a family day home or at a day center.

Family day homes are to provide a place for relatives to leave an elderly or disabled person during working hours. These homes will be approved by the Welfare Department and are limited to caring for three or fewer persons. Day centers care for larger numbers, providing meals and recreational and other activities in a supervised group setting.

Elderly persons will have another alternative. Foster Care Services for Adults offers 24-hour care in foster family homes which are approved and supervised by the Welfare Department.

They are designed for people who are unable to maintain their own homes, but who do not require regular nursing home care.

The Department of Public Welfare pays for these services and is interested in locating people who are willing to offer their homes for day care or foster care, as well as those who wish to contract with the department to provide Chore and Homemaker Services to adults.

Hamlin persons in need of such services or who wish to offer their services should contact the Welfare Department at 1110 W. Court Plaza-Anson Social Services Division or by calling 823-3821.

When aged, blind or disabled SSI recipients are found to be living in hazardous conditions or in situations in which they cannot protect themselves, a DPW social services worker will act to correct those situations through the Protective Services program.

In addition, the Welfare Department will assist SSI applicants and recipients in finding and using community resources related to education, employment, health, housing, transportation and other needs.

"Our primary goal in offering alternate care is to help as many people as possible delay going into nursing homes until they really need to," Vowell said. "Nursing home or other institutional care continues to have the support of the Welfare Department when there are no other alternatives."

NEWS FROM OLD GLORY

By BERNICE D. WHITE

The big news this week is the most welcome rain that fell over our area last Sunday. We measured .8 inch. Some folks in the community reported a little more, and some a little less. Many of the wheat fields are still looking good, so this moisture along with warm weather should boost the growth quite rapidly.

This is the first measurable amount of rainfall we had here since the Thanksgiving holidays.

Patrons in the Old Glory community will be interested to know that the local post office is now open until 5:00 p.m. Mondays through Fridays, all other hours remain the same as before.

Old Glory students attending the Hardin-Simmons annual speech tourney in Abilene last Friday and Saturday made a good showing. Isaac Castro advanced into the finals in boys persuasive speaking contest and Susan Baldree to the semi-finals in girls poetry interpretation. Beverly Neumann also participated in the girls prose reading contest.

Others who attended the H-SU tourney were Pete Castro and Rodney Dunham. The students were accompanied by Mrs. Cecil Klump.

Mr. and Mrs. Benno Erdman and Kathy were in Gruver recently visiting with the Erdman's other daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Peden and Penny.

While they were there they celebrated Mr. Erdman's and Penny's birthdays. Both had a birthday last week.

Kathy Erdman remained in Gruver to visit with the Peders for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Doty of Garden City, Kans., stopped by Sunday night to visit with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Spitzer.

The Dotys were on their way to Comfort to visit Mr.

and Mrs. Roy Wienke. Mrs. Wienke recently received serious injuries when a pickup she had parked rolled over her after she had evidently failed to apply the brake before getting out of it. According to reports Mrs. Wienke suffered severe bruises, lacerations, and several broken ribs.

Charlie Letz, who is a patient at Scott and White Hospital in Temple, is reported to be improving and is hoping to be back at home by the latter part of this week.

Adelbert Suter, who underwent surgery at the Haskell Hospital, is out of the hospital and is in Knox City recuperating at the home of his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John McCown and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Spitzer spent the weekend in Fort Worth visiting with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Clayton.

Mrs. Emma Newman of Amarillo has been here visiting with her sister, Mrs. Katie Gerloff, and a brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Beno Hertenberger. She also visited in Stamford with another sister, Mrs. Pauline Fuqua.

Russell Letz, student at New Mexico State University at Las Cruces, is here this week for spring holidays visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Letz.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McDonald of Wilson and Betsy Brown of Lubbock stopped by Sunday evening to visit with Mrs. McDonald's mother, Mrs. Bernice White. They had been to Oklahoma City to a wedding.

Julie and Jana Garner of Abilene spent the weekend here visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Garner.

Mr. and Mrs. Derrell Sawyers spent the weekend in Sweetwater visiting her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Butch Duke.

REWARD OFFERED

Stamford Electric Cooperative, Inc. is offering a $100.00 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone guilty of destroying Cooperative property.

Members should be on the lookout for vandals shooting out Security Lights, shooting insulators or transformers. These acts of vandalism are not only very dangerous to those who are responsible for such acts, but are also a very real threat to the life and property of others.

An electrical wire hanging low, because the insulator supporting it has been shot away, could be very deadly to anyone or anything coming in contact with it.

These acts of vandalism, besides being aggravating, when they cause your electricity to be off, become very costly in materials damaged and time spent to replace and repair the damage.

NEWS AND VIEWS...

And What Have You

By BOB CRAIG

The country is saved! Can you think of anything that could take our minds off of all our world's problems like this new fad of streaking? Not only has it given college students something to do in the place of political activism, it has supplied the older generations with plenty of coffee break conversation.

Streaking has also given column writers a good subject to fill space with.

Troy Martin in The Canyon News offers the following recipe for streaking, as an old fogey sees it, "Call a crowd, and notify the television stations. It's no fun streaking unnoticed."

"Then strip to the skin and run a bat out of — from one dormitory to another. University officials will make noises but they probably won't bother you since most of the administrators are relieved that you are not taking over a public park or occupying the administration building.

"The girls have joined in only sparsely. I heard of two girls who streaked at an eastern university and they were so ugly they set streaking back a good year.

"Don't expect any mass arrests.

"Students have to do something when spring comes and the sap rises. In recent years they sat up all night trying to think up new ways to defy the establishment.

"If the truth were known and the innermost feeling of college presidents were made public I'll wager their thoughts overwhelmingly would be, 'Isn't streaking wonderful?'"

Noticed in the Vernon paper that there is a possibility of a new industry developing out of this latest craze. Of course we might have to hurry to beat Vernon to the punch but the proposed industry would market racing stripes for the "streakers" who are presently multiplying on the campuses of the universities and colleges across the country.

Some one in Vernon also suggests that streakers shouldn't be arrested while they are really streaking. He says they are guilty of indecent exposure only when they stop.

Our son, Darrell, was home this weekend and I asked him why I had heard very little about streaking at Austin. Most of the streaking in Texas has been confined to the smaller colleges and universities.

He said that for one thing Austin has very few dorms on the campus and also that the campus has just been covered with cops. He said that while the cops couldn't catch the streakers, they were using cameras to get pictures and picking them up later. He said that for the most part the streakers just have not been able to beat the system down there.

Barbara and I attended the West Texas Press Association meeting in Fort Stockton this past weekend and one thing that keeps me amazed is the spread in the price of gasoline.

For the most part the price of gasoline in Fort Stockton is about the same as here, while it was about three cents higher when I was out there about two months ago. But in Big Spring it was about five cents higher than it is in Hamlin or Fort Stockton.

While the federal government urges citizens to report gasoline price violations, who knows what is a violation and what is not. Locally this is not much of a problem because you can keep better track of the increases but how is a person traveling across the country supposed to know what the price is supposed to be?

Fortunately, I did not have to buy

IS GASOLINE ATIONING CI DIL SHORTAGE HEATING OI CONSERVATI NERGY-FUE EFFICIENCY IS IMPORTANT TOO!

Efficiency is a very important part of our conservation program. It's defined as getting maximum results for minimum cost. For example: using natural gas for those jobs it does best. Like heating your home, cooking, clothes drying and water heating. You not only use energy more efficiently, but also cut the cost of your utility bills and contribute to energy conservation.

Some other examples of saving energy and cutting costs are: turning down your thermostat to 68 degrees, cutting your shower time down to 5 minutes and fixing a leaky faucet. (A leaky hot water faucet wastes as much as 700 gallons of water a year plus the energy needed to heat it.)

FROM THE FILES . . .

FIFTY YEARS AGO
(March 7, 1924)

It is a pretty good record in one month, the shortest of the year, for 65 hens to produce 1314 eggs. That is what the famous White Leghorns of Fred Moore did in February. Fred says that is no better than it should be, but yet when seven out of 10 lay every day, that is very fine. Fred has a small space in the back yard and regardless of the time of year, Moore's hens produce the eggs.

There seems to be a big opening in Hamlin for some one to put in a laundry of some description. Why send all this money to our neighboring cities.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
(March 12, 1954)

Water meter connections reported by the Hamlin city office this week gives further indication that the population of the city is probably at an all-time record. Telephone and electric connections also attest to the definite growth in recent months of the city's population. In fact, numbers of people have estimated that there are now 4,000 people in Hamlin. Official census figures in 1950 placed the population at 3,569.

Hamlin area cotton farmers were smiling a little broader this week following the declaration in Washington that cotton will be supported at a national average of not less than 31.25 cents per pound this year. Last year's average was 30.80 cents. Both averages were support prices of 90 per cent of parity, the minimum support level permitted by law.

A nice revenue was realized by members of the Good Neighbor Home Demonstration Club from the chili supper that was staged Friday evening by the group at the Hamlin High School cafeteria.

Three new completions, one of which is for dual production, one testing for pay and two projected wells spotlight the oil development in the Hamlin region during the past few days.

TEN YEARS AGO
(March 12, 1964)

The Piperettes fell by the wayside Friday in the first round of the Region I Conference AA tournament held in Lubbock, when they lost to the Granbury Pirates, 67-42. The Piperettes trailed in all four quarters of the game with the Pirates making big gains in both the second and fourth quarters. The Piperettes finished the basketball season Friday with a 24-9 record, 13-6 in pre-district and 10-0 in district play. They averaged 44 points per game.

gas in Big Spring but how is one to know whether the price in Big Spring is really supposed to be five cents higher than it is in Fort Stockton or Hamlin?

You boat and recreation vehicle owners can take heart in the fact that while gasoline will be a big problem for you this summer the government has not forgotten you.

According to a news story in The Christian Science Monitor the leisure industry — resort hotels, motels, restaurants, boating and skiing facilities, and a hundred other things — is a major industry, deserving of its proper slice of the energy pie.

But what is the proper slice? The Federal Energy Office intends to find out.

Boat users, according to the story, can look forward to 85 percent of the fuel they consumed in the base period of 1972 — a sharp cutback from current demand, but no worse, relatively, than motorists now experience with their cars.

Boaters who have trouble at gas stations, the story says, should complain to their regional FEO office. Station owners can not legally discriminate between boat and car.

Gasoline consumed by a pleasure boat is clearly recreational. But so is gasoline used to transport families to bowling, the movies or a football game.

DPS to Tighten Up On Speed Limit Enforcement

AUSTIN—Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said today he is disturbed by many complaints by Texas motorists about drivers refusing to obey the 55-mile-per-hour speed limit, and has directed DPS troopers to intensify their enforcement efforts.

"When the new law went into effect January 20 of this year," he said, "our surveys indicated a high degree of voluntary compliance on the part of Texas drivers.

"But since that time, we have noticed that motorists, or at least many of them, have been gradually 'inchin' up their speeds on Texas highways. Consequently, our troopers have been increasing their volume of speeding citations, and will have to continue to intensify their efforts until a more reasonable degree of voluntary compliance is achieved."

Speir said he has received numerous reports by motorists who are complying with the new law who are frightened and angered by others who pass them at speeds dangerously above the legal limit, and still others who "tailgate" them when they can't pass for one reason or another.

"We commend those drivers who are cooperating in the state and national effort to reduce accidents, save lives, and at the same time conserve fuel by driving within the legal limits," Speir said.

"And we solicit the cooperation of those who would forget or ignore the dangers posed to themselves and others by dangerous and illegal speeds on the highways of our state.

"We would remind everyone that consistently through the years, excessive speed is involved in more fatal accidents than any other single factor."

Welfare Department Now Offering

Alternate to Nursing Home Care

Alternatives to nursing home or institutional care are being offered by the State Department of Public Welfare to Texas' needy aged, blind and disabled.

The new "adult social services" are designed to help those who don't require full-time nursing care to continue living at home, State Welfare Commissioner Raymond W. Vowell said.

The new programs are intended for elderly people, and the blind and disabled, who receive a monthly assistance check from the federal government's Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program.

"With a little help, many elderly people who otherwise would have to enter nursing homes can live at home or in their own communities," Vowell said. "All they need is someone to help them do things they can no longer do for themselves, like cooking meals and taking care of the house."

To be offered on a statewide basis as community resources become available, the new programs include Homemaker, Chore Foster Care, Day Care and other services to adults.

Homemaker services provide someone to perform such personal care as bathing, exercising and giving medication, as well as preparing meals and doing light housework. The service will be provided for a few hours a day or on a 24-hour basis for a temporary period until the person is able to do for himself.

A similar program is Chore services, which is less personal, and provides a home service aide who can help with such things as cooking, cleaning, doing the laundry, shopping for groceries, minor repairs and yard work.

Day Care, a familiar service for children, will become available for adults as well, either in a family day home or at a day center.

Family day homes are to provide a place for relatives to leave an elderly or disabled person during working hours. These homes will be approved by the Welfare Department and are limited to caring for three or fewer persons. Day centers care for larger numbers, providing meals and recreational and other activities in a supervised group setting.

Elderly persons will have another alternative. Foster Care Services for Adults offers 24-hour care in foster family homes which are approved and supervised by the Welfare Department.

They are designed for people who are unable to maintain their own homes, but who do not require regular nursing home care.

The Department of Public Welfare pays for these services and is interested in locating people who are willing to offer their homes for day care or foster care, as well as those who wish to contract with the department to provide Chore and Homemaker Services to adults.

Hamlin persons in need of such services or who wish to offer their services should contact the Welfare Department at 1110 W. Court Plaza-Anson Social Services Division or by calling 823-3821.

When aged, blind or disabled SSI recipients are found to be living in hazardous conditions or in situations in which they cannot protect themselves, a DPW social services worker will act to correct those situations through the Protective Services program.

In addition, the Welfare Department will assist SSI applicants and recipients in finding and using community resources related to education, employment, health, housing, transportation and other needs.

"Our primary goal in offering alternate care is to help as many people as possible delay going into nursing homes until they really need to," Vowell said. "Nursing home or other institutional care continues to have the support of the Welfare Department when there are no other alternatives."

NEWS FROM OLD GLORY

By BERNICE D. WHITE

The big news this week is the most welcome rain that fell over our area last Sunday. We measured .8 inch. Some folks in the community reported a little more, and some a little less. Many of the wheat fields are still looking good, so this moisture along with warm weather should boost the growth quite rapidly.

This is the first measurable amount of rainfall we had here since the Thanksgiving holidays.

Patrons in the Old Glory community will be interested to know that the local post office is now open until 5:00 p.m. Mondays through Fridays, all other hours remain the same as before.

Old Glory students attending the Hardin-Simmons annual speech tourney in Abilene last Friday and Saturday made a good showing. Isaac Castro advanced into the finals in boys persuasive speaking contest and Susan Baldwin in girls poetry interpretation. Beverly Neumann also participated in the girls prose reading contest.

Others who attended the HSU tourney were Pete Castro and Rodney Dunham. The students were accompanied by Mrs. Cecil Klump.

Mr. and Mrs. Benno Erdman and Kathy were in Gruver recently visiting with the Erdman's other daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Peden and Penny. While they were there they celebrated Mr. Erdman's and Penny's birthdays. Both had a birthday last week.

Kathy Erdman remained in Gruver to visit with the Peders for a while. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Doty of Garden City, Kans., stopped by Sunday night to visit with their sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Spitzer. The Dotys were on their way to Comfort to visit Mr.

Russell Letz, student at New Mexico State University at Las Cruces, is here this week for spring holidays visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Letz.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McDonald of Wilson and Betsy Brown of Lubbock stopped by Sunday evening to visit with Mrs. McDonald's mother, Mrs. Bernice White. They had been to Oklahoma City to a wedding.

Julie and Jana Garner of Abilene spent the weekend here visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Garner.

Mr. and Mrs. Derrell Sawyers spent the weekend in Sweetwater visiting her

REWARD OFFERED

Stamford Electric Cooperative, Inc. is offering a $100.00 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone guilty of destroying Cooperative property.

Members should be on the lookout for vandals shooting out Security Lights, shooting insulators or transformers. These acts of vandalism are not only very dangerous to those who are responsible for such acts, but are also a very real threat to the life and property of others.

An electrical wire hanging low, because the insulator supporting it has been shot away, could be very deadly to anyone or anything coming in contact with it.

These acts of vandalism, besides being aggravating, when they cause your electricity to be off, become very costly in materials damaged and time spent to replace and repair the damage.

Tee Hibbert. Entry fee will be $3.00 per class and trophies will be given through fifth place and a high point horse award will be given.

Quarter Horse Association rules will be applied in all events.

Classified deadline is 8:30 a.m. Wednesday.
